Contacting the Financial Consumer Agency of Canada ("FCAC")

The FCAC supervises all federally regulated financial institutions to ensure that they comply with federal consumer protection provisions. It also educates consumers and monitors industry codes of conduct and public commitments designed to protect consumer interests.

These consumer protection provisions cover a variety of operating practices that directly affect clients. For example, financial institutions are required by law to provide consumers with information about their fees and complaint handling procedures.

Specific complaints made in writing will be assessed by the FCAC on a case-by-case basis to determine whether a federal consumer protection issue exists, and if so, what necessary action should be taken.

Regulatory complaints should be submitted in writing:
